

written by: LAURA WIFLER illustrated by: CATALINA ECHEVERRI

ANY TIME

ANY PLACE

ANY PRAYER

Many years ago – nearly as long ago as you can go – two people lived with God in a beautiful garden.

They were Adam and Eve, and they were friends with God.

They could talk with him about every thought they had.

Every question they wondered.
Every feeling they felt.

They told him
anything, anytime.

An illustration of a woman with long, dark, wavy hair, looking up with wide, white eyes and a slightly open mouth, her hand near her chin in a gesture of surprise or contemplation. To her right is a branch with several round, reddish-pink fruits and yellow-orange leaves. The background is a dark, reddish-purple gradient. The text is positioned in the upper left and lower right areas of the image.

But one day, the devil
slithered into the garden
as a snake.

He spoke to Eve
and suggested that God did not love
her and Adam.

Adam and Eve
decided that the snake's words sounded better than God's words...

so they chose not to trust and obey God anymore. This is called sin – and sin spoils beautiful things.

Now, Adam and Eve were afraid of God.

The next time God came to talk with them, they hid.

But God found them. He told them that because of their sin, they would have to live outside God's garden, separated from him.

Now people couldn't be with God.
But they could still talk with him.

Talking with God is called "prayer."

But because of sin, prayer was sometimes hard.

Sometimes people didn't know what to pray to God.

Sometimes they didn't want to pray to him.

And sometimes, they were just plain ol' scaredy pants.

The Law

The Prophets

The Words of Wisdom

But God kept reminding his people that he wanted them to talk with him about anything, anytime, anyplace.

So they prayed...

Miriam (Exodus 15)

When they felt their love for God so much they thought their hearts might burst!