There are lots of lovely words in the world. And many words have opposites.

The opposite of in is out. The opposite of left is right. The opposite of happy is sad.

In this true story from the Bible, we're going to follow the story of Joseph, his brothers and his dad. It's a story with lots of ups and downs – keep an ear out for all the opposites.

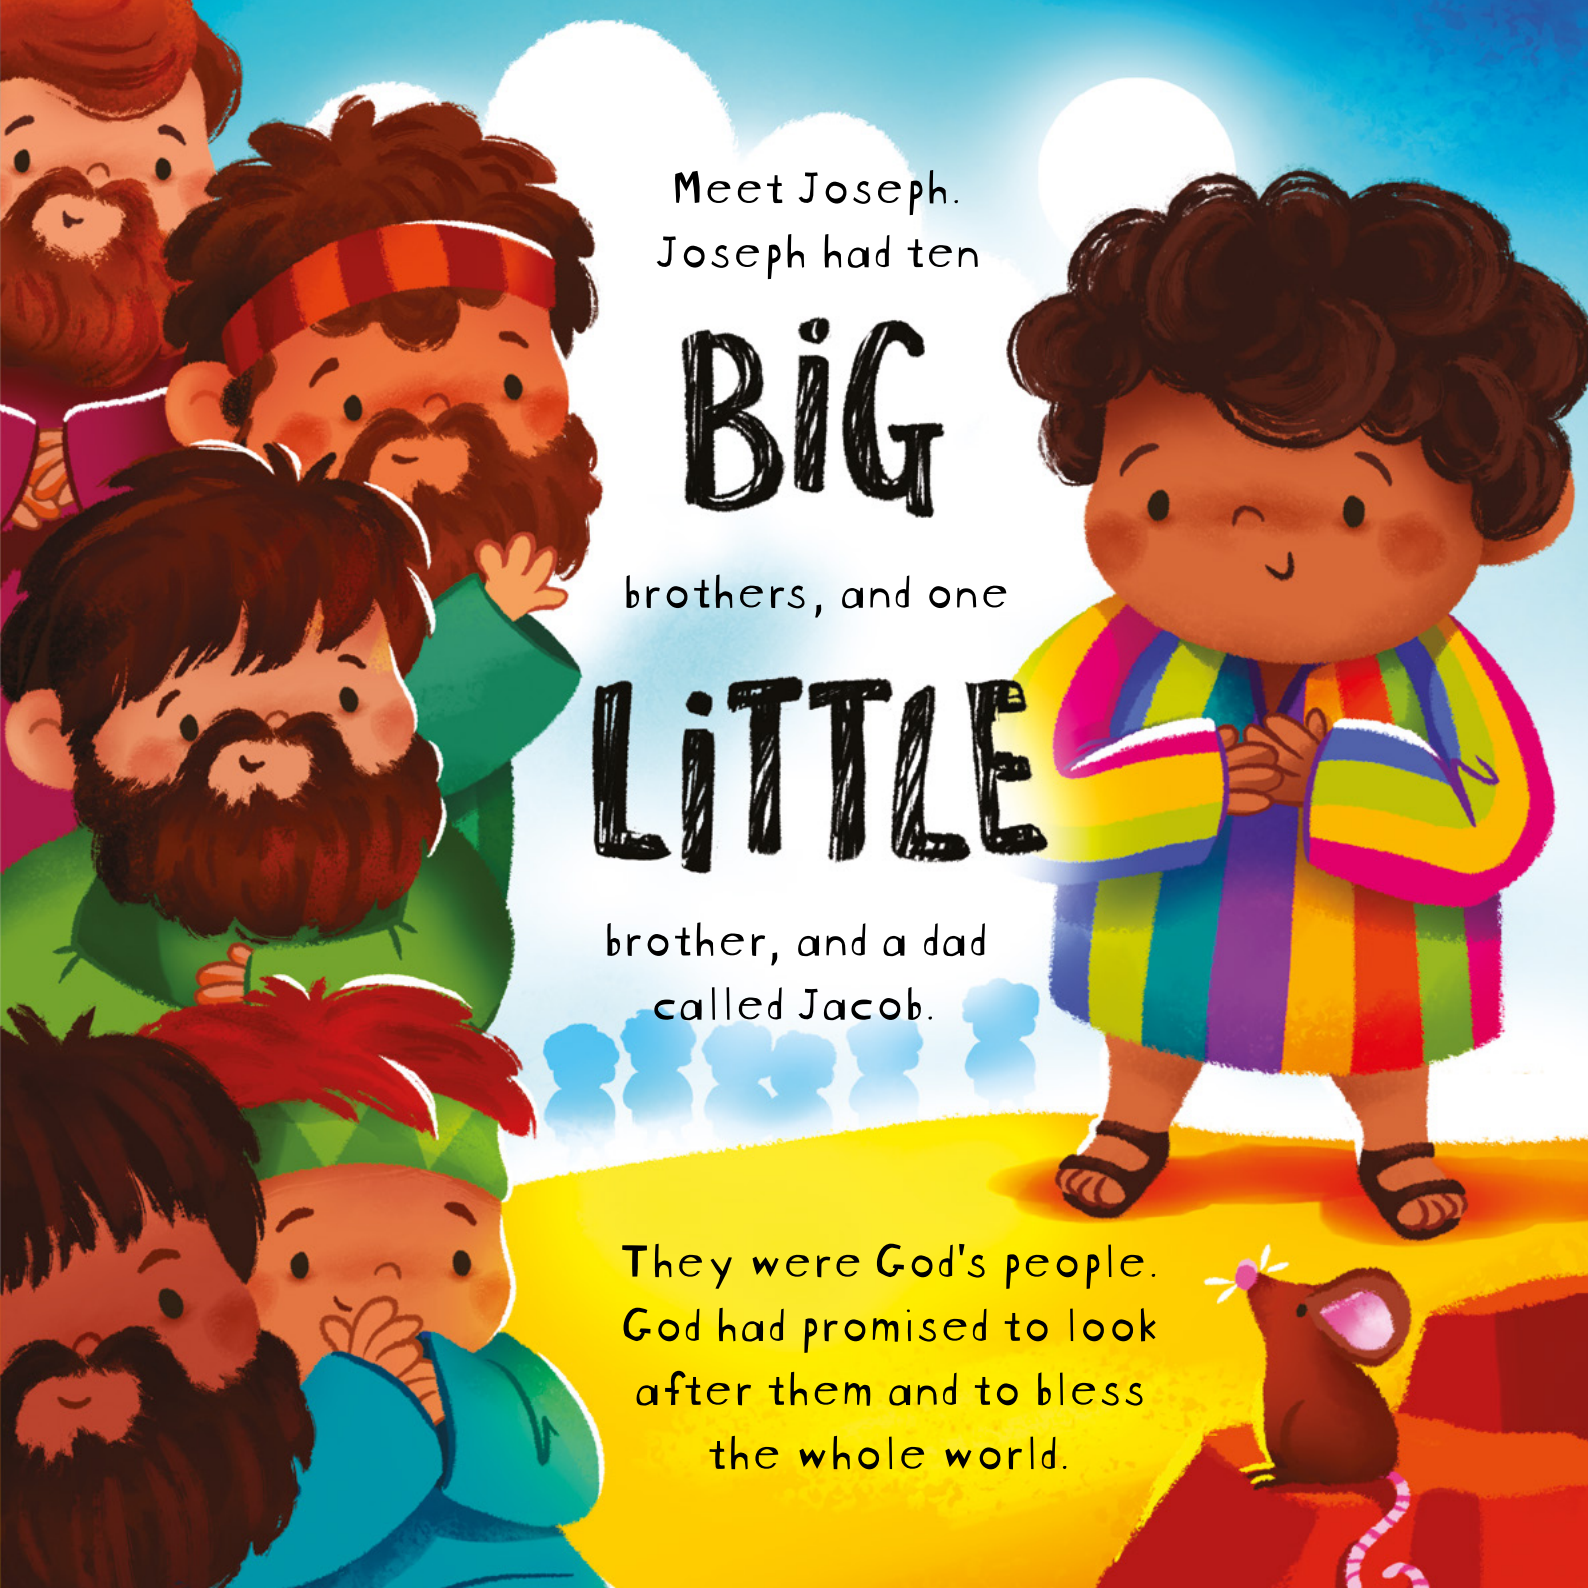

So join me as we follow the bad-good, near-far, sleep-awake, worried-calm story of what happened when Joseph started to have some Very Strange Dreams.

The illustration features a group of men with large, dark brown beards and various hairstyles, including one with a red and orange striped headband. They are dressed in colorful, simple tunics. To the right, a woman with dark, curly hair wears a vibrant, multi-colored striped robe. The background is a bright blue sky with white clouds and a yellow ground. In the bottom right corner, a small brown mouse is visible.

Meet Joseph.
Joseph had ten

BIG

brothers, and one

LITTLE

brother, and a dad called Jacob.

They were God's people.
God had promised to look after them and to bless the whole world.

Jacob loved Joseph more than his other sons.
Joseph's brothers hated him for this.

one NIGHT

Joseph had some Very Strange Dreams.
