

Jesus' friends will live in heaven.

What is heaven like?

A glowing, ethereal hand emerges from the top, holding a large, textured sphere of red and orange light. Below it, another glowing hand emerges from the bottom, holding a smaller, textured sphere of blue and green light. The background is a deep blue with a fine, white grid pattern, resembling a celestial map or a digital space. The overall effect is one of divine creation or revelation.

Jesus said that one day

heaven will be here.

When Jesus comes back to this world,
he will bring heaven with him.

The world will be perfect!

Nothing will get broken or go wrong.

We will be perfect.

There will be no arguing or hurting.

We will have new bodies.
