Notes for next week:

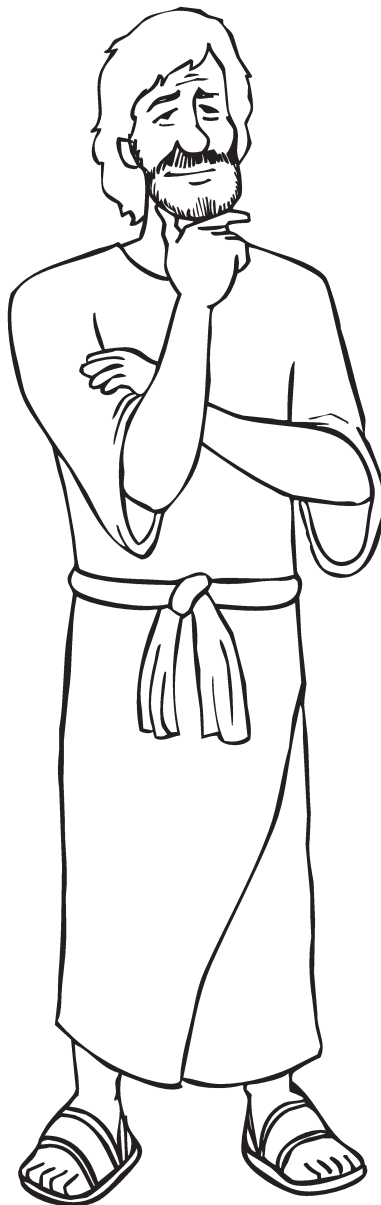

WAS JESUS THE SON OF GOD?

WAS HE THE MESSIAH SENT BY GOD
TO SAVE PEOPLE FROM THEIR SIN?

WHAT CLUES WERE GIVEN IN THE OLD TESTAMENT SO
PEOPLE COULD RECOGNISE THE MESSIAH. OR SAVIOUR?

DID JESUS FIT THE CLUES?

--- Come with Dr Luke as we go on the trail of the real Jesus! ---

To find out what Luke said about his investigation of the facts about Jesus, replace the words in type with a rhyming word. The first one has been done for you. You can check your answers by looking up Luke 1 v 1-4 in a CEV Bible.

Everyone has sinned. We all need to be rescued and God sent a Saviour so we could live as His friends.

DIGGING DEEPER!

What clues were given about the birth of Jesus that pointed to Him being the Messiah?

- An angel visited Mary.
- He said that Mary would have a son.
- He also said the baby would be named Jesus.

Did Mary have a son and was He named Jesus? Check Luke 2 v 5-7 and Luke 2 v 21

THINK ABOUT THIS!

The angel also said Jesus was the Son of God and that He would rule His people forever.

The angel was right about Mary having a baby and naming Him Jesus. If the angel was right about this do you think the angel would also know if Jesus was God's Son?

Angels also visited shepherds in the fields near Bethlehem. The angels told them that the Saviour had been born. The angel said that they would know who he was because they would find him dressed in baby clothes and lying on a bed of hay.

The shepherds checked out what the angel had told them.

Find the words in the letter chain to find out what the shepherds found when they went to Bethlehem.

Do you think this gives us proof that Jesus was the Saviour? Why or why not?

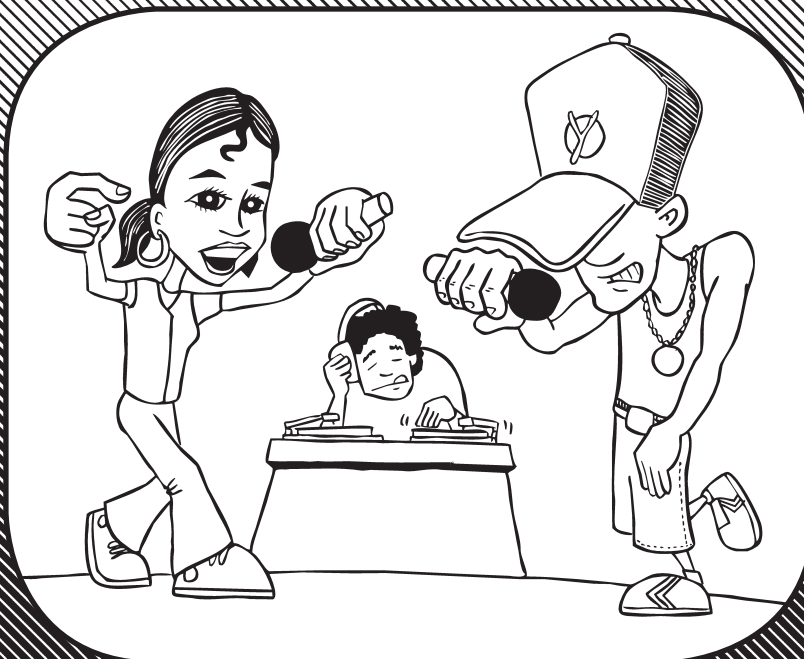

Now everyone in the desert sands
You'd better start doing what the Lord commands
The day's soon coming when He'll be right here
So turn back to Him 'cos He's going to appear.

Chorus

*Turnin' back to God is what's required
Repent of your sins and be baptised
The Messiah's comin'
So get ready for Him
Repent and be forgiven of your sin.
Get ready..... Get ready..... Get ready....*

The guy in the desert made the people wonder
And some asked him if he was the Messiah
But John said Hey hang on that's not true
I'm not even worthy to untie His shoe

I'll say it again to everyone
Get ready for the Lord God's chosen one
He's comin' soon so turn back now
I'm preparing the way and I'll say it loud!

Renters of a Vineyard

⁹Jesus told the people this story:

A man once planted a vineyard and rented it out. Then he left the country for a long time. ¹⁰When it was time to harvest the crop, he sent a servant to ask the renters for his share of the grapes. But they beat up the servant and sent him away without anything. ¹¹So the owner sent another servant. The renters also beat him up. They insulted him terribly and sent him away without a thing. ¹²The owner sent a third servant. He was also beaten terribly and thrown out of the vineyard.

¹³The owner then said to himself, "What am I going to do? I know what. I'll send my son, the one I love so much. They will surely respect him!"

¹⁴When the renters saw the owner's son, they said to one another, "Some day he will own the vineyard. Let's kill him! Then we can have it all for ourselves." ¹⁵So they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him.

Jesus asked, "What do you think the owner of the vineyard will do? ¹⁶I'll tell you what. He will come and kill those renters and let someone else have his vineyard."

When the people heard this, they said, "This must never happen!"

¹⁷But Jesus looked straight at them and said, "Then what do the Scriptures mean when they say, 'The stone that the builders tossed aside is now the most important stone of all'? ¹⁸Anyone who stumbles over this stone will get hurt, and anyone it falls on will be smashed to pieces."

¹⁹The chief priests and the teachers of the Law of Moses knew that Jesus was talking about them when he was telling this story. They wanted to arrest him right then, but they were afraid of the people.

Psalm 41 v 9

My most trusted friend has turned against me, though he ate at my table.

Luke 22 v 4–6

Judas went to talk with the chief priests and the officers of the temple police about how he could help them arrest Jesus. They were very pleased and offered to pay Judas some money. He agreed and started looking for a good chance to betray Jesus when the crowds were not around.

Matthew 26 v 23–25

He answered, 'One of you men who has eaten with me from this dish will betray me. The Son of Man will die, as the Scriptures say. But it's going to be terrible for the one who betrays me! That man would be better off if he had never been born.' Judas said, 'Teacher, you surely don't mean me!' 'That's what you say!' Jesus replied. But later, Judas did betray him.

Isaiah 53 v 11a

By suffering, the servant will learn the true meaning of obeying the Lord.

Luke 22 v 41–42

Jesus walked on a little way before he knelt down and prayed, 'Father, if you will, please don't make me suffer by making me drink from this cup. But do what you want, and not what I want.'

Isaiah 53 v 8

He was condemned to death without a fair trial. Who could have imagined what would happen to him? His life was taken away because of the sinful things my people had done.

Matthew 26 v 59–61

The chief priests and the whole council wanted to put Jesus to death. So they tried to find some people who would tell lies about him in court. But they could not find any, even though many did come and tell lies. At last, two men came forward and said, 'This man claimed that he would tear down God's temple and build it again in three days.'

Isaiah 53 v 11b

Although he is innocent, he will take the punishment for the sins of others, so that many of them will no longer be guilty.

Luke 23 v 4

Pilate told the chief priests and the crowd, 'I don't find him guilty of anything.'

Luke 23 v 22

Pilate spoke to them a third time, 'But what crime has he done? I have not found him guilty of anything for which he should be put to death. I will have him beaten with a whip and set free.'

Isaiah 53 v 4

He suffered and endured great pain for us, but we thought his suffering was punishment from God.

Luke 23 v 33

When the soldiers came to the place called "The Skull", they nailed Jesus to a cross. They also nailed the two criminals to crosses, one on each side of Jesus.

Isaiah 53 v 12

The Lord will reward him with honour and power for sacrificing his life. Others thought he was a sinner, but he suffered for our sins and asked God to forgive us.

Luke 23 v 34

Jesus said, 'Father, forgive these people! They don't know what they're doing.'

2 Corinthians 5 v 21

Christ never sinned! But God treated him as a sinner, so that Christ could make us acceptable to God.

Isaiah 53 v 6

All of us were like sheep that had wandered off. We had each gone our own way, but the LORD gave him the punishment we deserved.

a WONDERFUL VICTORY!

Use a lead pencil to highlight the effect Adam's sin had upon people.

Use a highlighter to show the effects of Jesus' death and resurrection.

Romans 5 v 17–21 (CEV)

¹⁷ Death ruled like a king because Adam had sinned. But that cannot compare with what Jesus Christ has done. God has been so kind to us, and he has accepted us because of Jesus. And so we will live and rule like kings. ¹⁸ Everyone was going to be punished because Adam sinned. But because of the good thing that Christ has done, God accepts us and gives us the gift of life. ¹⁹ Adam disobeyed God and caused many others to be sinners. But Jesus obeyed him and will make many people acceptable to God. ²⁰ The Law came, so that the full power of sin could be seen. Yet where sin was powerful, God's kindness was even more powerful. ²¹ Sin ruled by means of death. But God's kindness now rules, and God has accepted us because of Jesus Christ our Lord. This means that we will have eternal life.
