

This is Obadiah.

His name means “the Lord’s servant.”
He was a prophet, someone chosen by God to deliver God’s messages to God’s people.

One day God showed Obadiah how he was going to punish Israel’s neighbors, the Edomites. The Edomites had been mean to God’s people, Israel, for a very long time.

It all started with twin brothers named Jacob and Esau.

Esau was born first, which meant he would get more of the family's property. But when he grew up, he sold his bigger share to his younger brother, Jacob, for a bowl of red stew. This foolish trade earned him the nickname "Edom," which means "Red," which is why his family were called the Edomites.

Jacob's family was called Israel, which was the new name God gave Jacob. The Edomites and Israelites lived next to each other, and they fought a lot!

