Jesus Rides a Donkey

Hundreds of years before Jesus was born, God's messenger Zechariah had said that when God's promise-keeping king came, he would ride into Jerusalem on a young donkey. God promised that this king would rule God's people, and they would live in peace and happiness.

God had promised his people...

A King

Peace

Happiness

Jesus rode a young donkey into Jerusalem. "Yay, this is the king God promised to send!" people shouted.

You can read all about this in the Bible, in Matthew chapter 21 verses 1 to 9

Jesus at the Temple

Jesus went to the temple in Jerusalem. He saw that people were going there to make money instead of to pray. Jesus was very unhappy about this. He tipped over the tables of the people who were selling things.

How many coins can you count?

Lots of people loved to listen to Jesus' teaching.

But the religious leaders did not like Jesus. They heard some children saying that Jesus was God's promise-keeping king. They asked Jesus to make the children stop. But Jesus said...

God loves to hear big truths coming out of little mouths.
