

A true story from the Bible

The Christmas story started a loooooooooooooooooooooong

time ago
with a promise.

Long ago, people said, "No" to God,
and the world was broken.

But God promised,

“I’m sending someone to fix things
- a King who will fix things for ever!”

And then, one day, someone called Mary was minding her own business when she heard a voice.

"An angel!"

WHAAAAAT!?"

Mary thought.

“Don’t worry,” said the angel, “God is sending you a baby - and no ordinary baby, but someone who comes from God!”

"His name is 'God-to-the-rescue!'"
("Jesus" in their language)

